Sunday Reflection

Let us choose to celebrate

Heavenly Father,

As we celebrate the Sundays of Easter, Lord, let us not forget the joy of the empty tomb. Make a sacred place in our hearts and lives, Lord, for the light of Your resurrection to shine daily. Keep the doors of our love open just as stone was rolled away from Your tomb. Show us Lord that Easter is not truly a day or a season, it is a choice of our spirit to celebrate you every moment of our lives. Amen.

New Parish Committees

At our most recent PPC Meeting, after the presentation by Ryan Tarnava and Fr. Kevin regarding the recommendations for our parish accepted by Bishop McGrattan, it was encouraged that we form two committees going forward.

The first committee is the Unity Committee (speaks for itself) and the Mitigation Committee. The Mitigation Committee will look at the needs of the parish and how we can deal with them, now and in the future.

Anyone who may be interested in being on one of these committees to please submit your name to the parish office. Thank you.

Abide in Christ so that Christ might abide in you. Then your deeds will bear fruit and glorify God.

Pope's Pastoral Works

A disastrous flood or earthquake strikes a nation at the other end of the world. Immediately many countries rush in food, medicine, blankets, money, and trained people. Prominent among such aid is the financial help offered by the Holy Father to people in need. The annual Pope's Pastoral Works collection makes these funds available for distribution. In the name of Catholics everywhere, he displays Christ's love and compassion for those who suffer.

Next weekend we will have a second collection for The Pope's Pastoral Works.

Fr. Kevin's Cluttered Desk

I am the vine and you are the branches has an entirely new meaning in our world today. Think of it this way, the internet is the vine, and your cell phone is the branch connected to the vine. If you are not connected, then you are in deep trouble. If your connection is not strong, something might get dropped. If your reception/connection drops, where does that leave you? And then there is the part about does your connection take you to the "correct" spot. Jesus is the vine that connects all of us to God the Father. Jesus is the vine that feeds us and nourishes us so that we might grow and mature as God's holy children. And just like the branches on a vine, we need to be pruned (Confession), fed (Eucharist) and empowered (Confirmation) and for some grafted (Marriage) onto other branches. St. John tells us, the way to stay attached to the vine is by loving God and neighbour and keeping God's commandments. But just as important and maybe even more is our reception of the Eucharist. In our world today how many people would like to live without their internet connection? Could they survive? Yes, I am sure they could, but would they respond to things in a timely manner, would they be able to stay connected to family and friends? One might want to try going with no internet for a day or two and see how that works. No credit or debit card, you would have to pay cash, no emails, no texting, no looking things up on your phone or computer or iPad, no social media, and for some no TV or security checking your house or doorbell. Now the reality is people would survive but maybe not as comfortably. In the same way people do appear to survive without Jesus in their lives but how well do they survive after death?

Peace Fr. Kevin
