Sunday Reflection

Gotta tell somebody

Good news is more powerful than any combustion engine. If we could bottle the energy contained in a new grandparent's desire to show baby pictures or a bride to share wedding plans, we'd have an inexhaustible energy supply. Try to silence them and joyous tidings will still come bubbling off their tongues.

The leper healed by Jesus felt the same way. Healed, but commanded to silence, he probably had the best of intentions to Jesus' request. But this newly healed believer just couldn't bear it. He had to share the good news, "Jesus heals, Jesus saves!" Today, as we celebrate that same eternal source of good news, let's catch the leper's contagious enthusiasm: Get out and tell somebody!

Fr. Kevin's Cluttered Desk

So, Wednesday is Ash Wednesday. Are we ready? In the gospels Jesus tells the leper and others he has healed not to tell anyone but at Pentecost that all changed. Pentecost took us from 'don't tell anyone' to 'tell everyone.' Since then, we are all called to spread the Good News, to talk openly about Jesus and our relationship with Jesus. And Lent is the perfect time to publicly share our Lenten Journeys. Growing up and going to school every Friday during lent with sardine sandwiches, they knew we were Catholic. No, I gave that up for Lent, and they knew you were Catholic. No, I have to go to church for, "Adoration or The Stations" and they knew you were Catholic. Sharing our faith begins with an invitation, and a willingness to be seen as different. Now I must admit, sardine and onion or sardine and garlic is a strange invitation, but it can and does work. The question of, "why are you eating that?" can lead to some great conversations. A Caesar salad with no bacon but "please some anchovies" is another great conversation opener and not as smelly as sardine sandwiches. Or you could take your prayer book to work and leave it on your desk; a good reminder to pray during your day also becomes a conversation piece. Or put reminders on your smart phone to pray at 10:00 am and noon and 3:00 pm. It buzzes and you pray an Our Father at 10:00, it buzzes and you pray a Hail Mary at noon, it buzzes and you pray a Glory Be at 3:00. "Why does your phone keep buzzing", "Oh it's my prayer reminder". And maybe a conversation will begin.

Peace Fr. Kevin

A Pastoral Message from Bishop McGrattan on Lent & Social Media

As we approach Lent, Bishop McGrattan reminds us to take a step back, pause, and reflect on our use of social media. Using insights from the latest CCCB pastoral letter, "Let Your Speech Always be Gracious," and the Holy Father's Lenten message, the Bishop highlights the seven commitments we should make to witness to core Christian values and help build a healthy online environment that serves the common good.

A link to the Bishop's message can be found on our parish website homepage.
