Sunday Reflection

Pray and persist: Never lose heart

Imagine a parable with one purpose: to teach people that they ought always to pray and not lose heart. Would you picture a kindly father always listening to his beloved child? Perhaps a devoted mother sitting near a sick child's bedside. The one picture you probably wouldn't draw would be of an annoyed judge and a pest of a widow.

Yet such was the parable Jesus told about the stern judge who was bothered by a nagging widow who felt she had been taken advantage of. The feisty little widow kept coming and coming before the judge insisting that she be given justice. Finally, becoming weary of her persistence, the judge granted her what she wanted.

Is God truly a stubborn judge who wants us to petition Him relentlessly until He finally gives in and grants what we've demanded? Hardly. God wants us to have what's best, not whatever we happen to ask for. The lesson of the parable is to pray persistently, asking His judgment not our own. We want to petition not to persuade. We need to see things God's way, to understand what God is already doing in the situation. "God," said Jesus, "will vindicate his elect, who cry to him day and night" (Luke 18:7). But it does take prayer, persistence, and never losing heart.

World Missions

Today on World Mission Sunday, we are invited to celebrate our mission's vocation, to pray for the people who are actively engaged in mission, and to generously contribute to our worldwide mission solidarity fund through the World Mission collection. Your gift helps:

- People in remote villages, towns and cities, through the witness and work of missionaries and local priests;
- Children, the elderly, refugees, the sick, and orphans through the service of religious Sisters and Brothers;
- To bring the Gospel to the poorest of our human family;
- Catechists proclaim the message of hope and peace that only Christ can give.

Please offer your prayers for the work of the Church in the missions today and be as generous as you can on World Mission Sunday.

Pilgrimage Prayer

All-powerful and merciful God,
you led the children of Israel on dry land, parting waters of the sea;

you guided the Magi to your Son by a star.

Help these our brothers and sisters and give them a safe journey.

Under your protection let them reach their destination and return home safely.

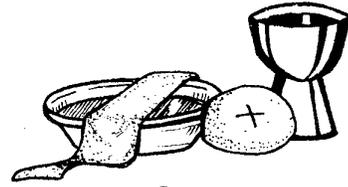

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Stewardship Reflection

When the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth? (Luke 18.8)

Our church communities have no shortage of money, no lack of volunteers, no paucity of gifts. What many have is a faith problem. The Lord is a just judge. Jesus assures us that if we have faith in Him, God will grant us justice.

Fr. Kevin's Cluttered Desk

My mother always said I needed to spend more time with Prudence. Prudence, one of the Cardinal virtues is often depicted as a beautiful young woman gazing into a mirror. In the CCC 1806 Prudence is defined as "a quality that disposes us to discern what we are to do in every circumstance of our lives, and to choose wisely the right means of achieving it." In life this virtue can help us conduct ourselves rightly, being considerate towards others, not saying words that would embarrass others and mostly seeing things through to their possible conclusion before acting. In the game of golf this is seeing the shot before hitting the ball. In a job interview it is pre-thinking the questions that might be asked. In the church it is remembering the consequences of our choices and who might be hurt or who might be uplifted and encouraged by the choice. The ending might not always be the way we thought but we did take the time to reflect.

The mirror in the hand of Prudence is to remind us: "have we asked ourselves how this will end?" How will I look when everything is said and done? Is this good for me, good for all? When we look in the mirror, do we like what we see? As a child just rushing in without thinking was my usual choice, and somedays it still is. However thinking things through to their logical conclusion will never hurt any of us. Did Jesus know he would die in Jerusalem? Yes he did, but he also knew that because of his love for us and desire for us to share eternal life with the Father, he had to die to set us free from sin.

Prudence. Look at the possible outcomes, then do the right thing and do not count the cost.

Peace Fr. Kevin

Bicentenary Celebration (1820-2020):

Sisters, Faithful Companions of Jesus (fcJ)

The Society of the Faithful Companions of Jesus, who served in Calgary since 1885, is approaching a significant landmark in its life and history: 200 years since its foundation in Amiens, France.

For the FCJs, their Companions in Mission (lay Associates), friends, colleagues and associates, celebrations will begin on the Foundress' birthday, September 21, 2019, and end on the Feast of Christ the King, November 22, 2020
